Since then, Coach has been engaged in the manufacture, marketing and sale of fine leather and mixed material products including handbags, wallets, accessories, including eyewear, footwear including shoes, jewelry and watches. Coach sells goods through its own specialty retail stores, department stores, catalogs and via an Internet website, www.coach.com, throughout the United States and elsewhere.

12. Coach has used a variety of legally-protected trademarks and trade dresses for many years on and in connection with the advertisement and sale of its products, including those detailed in paragraph 14-23 of this Complaint (collectively, the "Coach Marks").

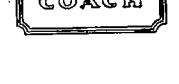

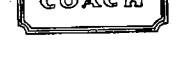

13. Coach has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising and otherwise promoting the Coach Marks. As a result, products bearing the Coach Marks are widely recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the trade as being high quality products sourced from Coach, and have acquired strong secondary meaning. 15. These registrations are valid, subsisting in full force and effect, and have become incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065.¹

16. The registration of the Coach Trademarks constitutes prima facie evidence of their validity and conclusive evidence of Coach's exclusive right to use the Coach Trademarks in connection with the goods identified therein and other commercial goods.

17. The registration of the marks also provides sufficient notice to Defendants of Coach's ownership and exclusive rights in the Coach Trademarks.

18. The Coach Trademarks qualify as famous marks, as that term is used in 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(1).

19. The Coach Trademarks at issue in this case have been continuously used and have never been abandoned.

The Coach Trade Dress

20. Coach is the owner of a variety of unique and distinctive trade dresses consisting of a combination of one or more features, including sizes, shapes, colors, designs, fabrics, hardware, hangtags, stitching patterns and other non-functional elements comprising the overall look and feel incorporated into Coach products (the “Coach Trade Dresses”).

21. Consumers immediately identify Coach as the single source of high quality products bearing the Coach Trade Dresses.

22. The Coach Trade Dresses associated with Coach products are independent of the functional aspects of Coach products.

23. Coach has employed the Coach Trade Dresses associated with its products exclusively and without interruption, and the Coach Trade Dresses have never been abandoned.

Defendants' Acts of Infringement and Unfair Competition

24. Upon information and belief, Defendants are engaged in designing, manufacturing, advertising, promoting, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale products bearing logos and source-identifying indicia and design elements that are studied imitations of the Coach Trademarks and the Coach Trade Dresses (collectively, the “Infringing Products”). Defendants’ specific conduct includes, among other things:

A. Defendants prominently display counterfeit Coach sunglasses at the Cosmetic House store as an enticement to attract potential customers to its business. Coach sunglasses of various styles are offered for sale at any given time.

B. On or about April 16, 2010, an investigator of the firm Allegiance Protection Group, Inc., purchased one (1) pair of sunglasses at Defendant Cosmetic House for $5.00. The design on the sunglasses bore the classic “Signature C” Coach Trademark.

C. The sunglasses were examined by Coach and found to be counterfeit. The dimensions of the “Signature C” Trademark are inconsistent with those found on authentic Coach sunglasses. The sunglasses examined also lacked the labeling required on all Coach sunglasses. The overall poor quality of the examined sunglasses, is also evident from the use of inferior materials, which does not meet Coach's high quality standards. The average manufacturer's suggested retail price for authentic Coach sunglasses of this type is approximately $188.00, and not $5.00.

25. Defendants are well aware of the extraordinary fame and strength of the Coach Brand, the Coach Trademarks and the Coach Trade Dresses, and the incalculable goodwill associated therewith.

26. Defendants have no license, authority or other permission from Coach to use any of the Coach Trademarks and the Coach Trade Dresses in connection with the designing, manufacturing, advertising, promoting, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale of the Infringing Products.

27. Defendants have been engaging in the above-described illegal counterfeiting and infringing activities knowingly and intentionally, or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Coach's rights, or with bad faith, for the purpose of trading on the goodwill and reputation of the Coach Marks and Coach products.

28. Defendants' activities, as described above, are likely to create a false impression, or to deceive consumers, the public, and the trade into believing, that there is a connection or association between the Infringing Products and Coach.

29. Upon information and belief, Defendants intend to continue to design, manufacture, advertise, promote, import, distribute, sell, and/or offer for sale the Infringing Products unless otherwise restrained.

30. Coach is suffering irreparable injury, has suffered substantial damages as a result of Defendants' activities, and has no adequate remedy at law.
